NINETEEN HUNDRED AND TWENTY-FIVE

CARLISLE HIGH SCHOOL

FOREWORD

Within this volume we have tried to record a few of the many phases of our High School days.

Through the kind help and support of the teachers as well as the co-operation of the entire school, we hope we have succeeded in producing a book which will be cherished in after years and bring to our minds many pleasures and activities in which we had participated.

We now extend our sincerest thanks to all those whose time and energy has helped to make this book possible and our desire realized.

Prof. J. C. Wagner, the superintendent of the Carlisle schools, has served in this position for over twenty years. He has always watched the progress of our class and tried to lighten our tasks by good sound advice.

Prof. J. Wesley Potter is our principal, under whose guidance we have passed our entire High School career. It is through his interest in us that we are now ready to leave our High School days and sail out into larger channels of life.

TO MR. J. H. SNYDER

Who, as a teacher and boys athletic coach, has won the respect of every boy and girl in high school; whose interest and aid in every school activity and whose services to the class of 1925 have endeared him to the hearts of our Class-mates:

We dedicate this book.

HELEN MAE LAIRD

"Hicky"

Impulsive, but kindhearted
Unselfish and true blue;
With laughing eyes and manners,
Yet serious purpose too.

Helen is one of the best students in the class of '25, but this maiden is not one who devotes her time entirely to developing her brain. Oh, no! that is not Helen, she studies but finds time for many other social activities. She is one of the wittiest of our girls and her winning ways have won her a wide circle of friends. She is anticipating going to Dickinson next year and we are sure she will come through with flying colors.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Sec'y 3; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; G. R. 3, 4; Oracle

Staff; Class Play.

HOWARD LACKEY

"What everybody says of him,
He is a fine young man."

Howard is an easy going, self sacrificing young man with a winning personality, which has won him scores of friends. Besides being occupied with the duties of class president, he has found time to fit in as business manager of the Oracle and to lead the clarinet section in the orchestra.

Pres. Senior Class; Treas. Junior Class; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Business Editor of Oracle; Hi-Y 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3, 4.

MARY LEHMAN

"Lemon"

"To make the world a friendly place,
One must show it a friendly face."

Lemon's the pride of Newville. She's just everybody's friend. Lemon always has a smile for everybody and it always means something. She's quite the bright young thing when it comes to studies. Lemon is another of Miss Starner's group, and Miss Starner certainly can be proud of her.

A. A. 4; Girl Reserves 4; Class Play.

EDITH FAGAN

"Ede"

"Oh, give me a book, and I'll be content."

Here's Ede, who is known to be forever poring over her books. We have heard it whispered that she stays up late at night to study, but it is not in vain. Ede stands high in her class, and we have no doubt that she will be successful in whatever line of work she undertakes.

A. A. 3, 4; Glee Club 2, 3.

LENA HOCH

"Frenchy"

Frenchy's a jolly little lass
The "vamp" of the Senior Class.

Vamp? I'll say she does. She certainly has been "rushed" by the Dickinson Freshmen this year. One of Lena's favorite remarks is "I am going to a "frat" dance tonight. She would rather dance than eat and that is saying a lot. Frenchy has a serious side also. She is a very promising young authoress and someday we all expect to read some of her books.

A. A.; Glee Club 3; Oracle Staff.

EUGENE GREENWOOD

"Brud"

So give me a Cadillac
A moonlight, and Janette.

Brud is a good natured fellow. But he has one great weakness, that being his liking for the opposite sex. Brud was one of the C. H. S. football heroes, being the captain of the '24 squad. Due to Eugene being so changeable we cannot fortell his future. It is rumored that he expects to attend Mercersburg.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Capt. 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3; Capt. 3.

LOULA MORRIS HOUSTON

"Lou"

"Where Pleasure and Duty clash
Lou lets Duty go to smash."

Yes, that's who it is! Nobody else but our Lou. Lou's wise sayings are known all over school, and when it comes to Public Speaking, she's right there.

Everyone expects Lou to go on with her schooling. Well, here's hoping you continue to spread your mirth among your friends wherever you go.

G. R. 1, 2; A. A.; Class Play

JOHN HALL

"Bony"

The sweetest hours that e'er I spend—
Are spent among the lasses.

Bony is one of the prominent boys in the class and one whom we can always depend upon, no matter what is asked of him. He has always been high in scholarship, although he has a lot of outside affairs to demand his time. He made the basketball team and sure did strut his stuff when called on the play. Besides all this, Bony played the "Sax" in the orchestra. His ambition is to be an electrical engineer and we all know he will succeed with all the luck of '25 back of him.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Treas. 4; Hi-Y; Oracle Staff; Orchestra; Basketball 4.

KENNETH WAGGONER

"Kenny" "Sheik"

A lion among the Ladies.

When it comes to popularity, Kenny sure is in a class by himself. Everyone knows Kenny is one of the most popular and indispensable boys of our class. He is a first-rate foot-ball player and track-man and excels in basketball. The class is greatly indebted to him in his untiring efforts to make this book a success.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Echo Staff 3; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; Foot-ball 2, 3, 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Capt. 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Capt. 3; Editor in Chief of Oracle; Vice Pres. Lit. 4.

JEAN WEAKLEY

"Jean"

"Come, pensive one, devout and pure Sober, steadfast, and demure."

When one doesn't really know Jean they might think her quiet and reserved, but ask someone who knows her well. That will be entirely different to hear. Jean is full of fun and is always ready for a good time. Jean also does her work real conscientious. Jean is going to Shippensburg next year, and we know the students up there will like her.

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Play.

LEE ROY WEARY

"Teetle"

"A most patient, grave and reverend senior." Teetle's skill as a hunter is known throughout the entire school. He also has a pet hobby of billiards, and has become quite an expert in that line. These in connection with his other duties do not give him very much time for his school work. His ambition is to become a great lawyer.

ROLANDIS WEITZEL

"Ted"

"She never tells all she knows
She's saving some thoughts for seed."

Here's a quiet girlie who seems not to bother with "us common folks." But let me tell you, get her started and you will say, "she's a good sport." Ted likes basketball very well, and makes a good showing when she gets her chance. Ted is going to try her hand in the business world, too.

Basketball 4; A. A. 2, 3, 4; Girl Reserves 2, 3.

CARL FUEHRER*"Furious"

Laugh and the class laughs with you.

If his handsome boyish face is not covered with a smile, Carl is asleep. But it is rumored that he laughs in his sleep too. Carl does not know what an enemy is, because he has none. He is a good basket-ball player and a fine sport. Good luck, Furious.

Basket Ball 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; A. A. 3, 4; Echo Staff 4; Oracle Staff.

MARY FICKES*"Buttercup"

"She excels each mortal thing
Upon the dull earth dwelling."

Mary has a quiet voice but, nevertheless, she certainly can talk. She is very brilliant in her classes and is envied by many of her classmates. Mary expects to go to Dickinson next fall. May good luck follow her all the way.

A. A. 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3.

EVA FITZGERALD*"Eva"

"Very Fair
She with the golden hair
Laughing eyes and rosy cheeks."

Eva is not so easy to become acquainted with. But to know her is to love her. She really has a pet hobby which in her case proves to be a good one. It is falling in love with her teachers. This isn't a bad hobby at all—we're sure you'll all admit it, since it has proven very profitable to her in many cases.

EVA FORNEY*"Eph"

"Made for comfort not for speed."

Poor, bashful little Eva. Always seen but never heard. In her Junior year she had a tragic love affair (which all her friends remember) and left her broken and sad. She is trying to live it down for we don't hear anything of it any more.

KATHRYN LYDER

"Kafrom Jane"

"Smile—'cause it's always worth while."

This is Kafrom's motto and she always lives up to it, too. Who has ever seen her without a smile? Kafrom is a good student, too, but sometimes she doesn't hit the typewriter keys hard enough. That does not matter though for she possesses a wonderful knowledge of History and other subjects as well.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1; Oracle Staff.

FRANK McCREA

"Deacon"

Long live Henry Ford
It's always in his Machine, that I approaching
May be seen.

Deacon runs a puddle jumper or rather it runs him. His main excuse for being late (which happens quite frequently) is the strange maneuvers which he claims this wonder machine makes. Altho personally, we believe it is more often caused by a little lady in the Junior Class. Deacon is also one of our most studious members.

A. A. 3; Hi-Y; Class Play; Class Pres. 2.

MARIAN McCARTER

"Gimme"

"Every where she goes"
"It's gimme, gimme."

That's Marian's password as well as her nickname. Marian expects to be a school teacher. How we wish we could be one of her pupils. Marian has some very excellent ideas about punishment. We wouldn't mind her using some on us, and we all know that her pupils will be fortunate to have such a teacher.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

ELIZABETH McCULLOUGH

"Betty"

So kind, so gentle,
So mild and staid,
She surely seems a model maid.
But mark you, gentle reader, well,
You cannot always sometimes tell.

Betty has only been with our class two years, but that was time enough to discover she is just the best friend anyone would want. When it comes down to scholarship Betty is always leading. But she has a heart of pure gold and would do any thing for less fortunate students. Yet, Betty is not all seriously inclined as she enjoys fun as much as the rest.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; G. R. 1, 2, 4; Echo Staff; Ass't Editor in Chief of Oracle Staff; Class Play

MILDRED SHENK

"Mid"

"No matter when a woman goes,
She's never dressed until—
She powders her nose."

The bobbed hair fad has not turned the head of this attractive Miss. Mid was the valedictorian of her Newville Class, the large city from which she comes. In C. H. S. she has proved her ability both in a scholastical standpoint and in attracting many members of the opposite sex by her winning ways. Do you wonder why she is so fond of athletics? I'll tell you—It is because a certain tall, light-haired fellow by the name of Ray plays both Football and Basketball.

JANET SMITH

"Jan"

"Convince a woman against her will She'll hold the same opinion still."

Next is Jan, our class pianist. When it comes to sociability Jan is right there. She enjoys a good time as all of us do, but we all noticed she had a bad case of the blues for a few days. It's all over now, however, 'cause love quarrels never last long. She expects to go to Dickinson next year and she surely hopes the Dickinson football team will play that term.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Sec'y A. A. 3; Orchestra 4; Glee Club 4; G. R. 1, 2, 3, 4.

NOEL SMITH

"Skipper"

Here's a young fellow
Whose favorite retreat
Is the Y. M. C. A.
Or South Hanover Street

The name "Skipper" makes one think of the dark blue waters. So there is where Noel is planning to spend some of his later days. "Skipper" is also very much interested in Athletics. Although he never participated in any sport excepting the Senior Basket-ball Team, he knows all track records and the great men in the sport light. We all wonder, Noel, if you won't find a place in your heart, beside the sea and athletics, to keep a remembrance of your classmates.

Hi-Y 3, 4; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Echo Staff 4; Oracle Staff; Glee Club 4.

HELEN SOLLENBERGER

"Lollipop"

"Eat, drink and be merry."

Lollipop is one of the jolliest members of the class. She is always ready to hear a good joke and is never too busy to stop and tell one. Helen is going to be a stenographer—maybe!

A. A. 3; Glee Club 1.

EVELYN BANKERT

"Ev"

"She wishes she were tall
But does she know,
Good things all are small."

Bang! goes a book or a sudden sweep of the hand makes curls fly. Ev sure likes to tease but that makes her all the more likeable. Aside from this she's a very good student, always willing to do something for someone. Her success as Girl's Basket-Ball Manager is well known. She intends studying further at Shippensburg Normal.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball Mgr. 4; Sec'y Lit. 3; G. R. 1, 4; Oracle Staff.

JAMES BLOSER

"Jim"

Though Jim is very quiet we guess his Ford has everything shook out of him. If his progress in after life is as good as it was in school, we'll be expecting big things from him.

FLORENCE BENTLEY

"Flossie"

"To see her is to love her."

Flossie is just a little girl, but her sunny smile and cheerful disposition have won many friends for her. She's in for everything and is always busy. None but herself can be her parallel. Flossie is going to Philadelphia to become a nurse, and the best wishes of '25 go with her.

MARGARET BRIDGE

"Peg"

"Happy, I am, from care I'm free;
O, why aren't they all contented like me."

Peg hails from Boston, the Hub of the Universe, that's why she shines in her classes. If she'd only stick to her work like she does to chewing gum—but alas! we can't all be students. Peg can pull off some original stuff in her Bostonian speech, it's funny to hear her "really you have no idear."

Basketball 4; A. A. 3, 4; Girl Reserves 3, 4.

FOSTER CHARLTON

"Fat"

"Oh-h-h! Mother, got anything to eat?"

That is the cry from "Fat" nine out of every ten times he enters the house. Next to eating, playing a saxophone is Foster's favorite pastime. We don't know what "Fat's" plan for his future is, but we rather think it will be along the musical line, for he has a talent in music that few possess in high school.

Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; A. A. 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Echo Staff 4; Oracle Staff; Mgr. Football 4; Orchestra 1, 3, 4; Class Play.

MARGARET CRAVER

"Peggy"

"A good sport and a true friend."

Peggy gets very much excited when she is called on. She reads Virgil very cleverly and affords many good laughs in that class. Peggy possesses many good qualities and hates to see things done unfairly. Margaret intends to enter Dickinson next year, and we are sure that she will succeed in all she undertakes.

A. A. 4; Glee Club 4; G. R. 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Play

MARTHA CRIDER

"Marty"

"Speech is great, but silence is greater."

Because of Martha's quietness, she is not known by some of the members of the class, as she might be. But those who know her all agree that she is a nice, quiet, little girl who is sure to succeed in life. We do not know what Marty's ambitions are, but we wish her luck.

CLARA CURLEY

"Curley"

Clara is very quiet, we know.
But you could not call her slow.

Did you ever hear Clara "disturbing the peace of the "inmates" of your school? Never! She is very industrious and always has her work done well. Dickinson College holds an interest for Clara. We predict a brilliant future for her and we are sure she will be successful in anything she might undertake.

A. A. 2, 3, 4.

CATHARINE McGONIGAL

"Kafrom"

Buzzing here and buzzing there,
To find her quiet is something rare.

Yes, you might think she's dreadfully quiet just to look at her; how looks do deceive. Talk? She can surely do her share, especially when the "other party" happens to be a "very quiet young man". Kate frequently arrives at school a little late, but "better late than never" is her motto.

A. A. 3, 4; Girl Reserves 1.

RAY MENTZER

"Mentz"

Big, Handsome and Tall, That's me all over.

This good-looking specimen of humanity is one of the big boys of the class, not only in size but in other things as well. He played full-back on the football team for three years and also spent three years on the basketball team. He is a good student and usually can be depended upon to recite.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3; Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4;
Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2; Track 3, 4; Oracle Staff.

LEOLINE MEALS

"Lee"

"Long live the merry heart
That laughs by night and day,
Like the queen of mirth
No matter what some say."

Leoline is our jolly girl. We used to think her very quiet, but we have changed our minds. "Oh sure!" is her favorite expression. "Lee" likes to write letters, so we guess that's why she is going to be a stenographer.

WILLIAM MURPHY

"Spuds"

Murphy never feels sedate
Unless before him sits a plate—of eats.

Here we have a son of Erin whose most favorite pastime is eating. Nevertheless, Spuds is a good fellow and a firm friend. He played a fine game at guard on the Senior basketball team, as any will testify who saw him in action. Bill wants to be an electrical engineer and we are sure he will be a success.

MADELINE DAVIS

"Mash"

"School would be intolerable without moonlight nights and dances."

Madeline loves to dance but we don't blame her. If you want to know the latest dance steps or song hits, just ask "Mash." She likes to skip school once in a while too. We don't know where she goes, but we can guess—Harrisburg—Is that right?

Glee Club 3; Oracle Staff; Girl Reserves 1.

LLOYD DEWALT

"Abie"

"My chief and only ambition is
To be the conqueror of Nurmi
For if that I can attain
The Girls will flock round me."

Athlete is the word by which Abie describes himself. Oh no not the all 'round kind but he specializes in only one thing, "track." Fact is he runs the half mile so fast he usually ends up in the first quarter. He also is an indoor athlete and quite a ladies' man.

MARGARET DOTTER

"Peg"

What Peg cares most about is clothes. Her studies don't bother her very much. Miss Starner and her girls claim Peggy as their own.

You ought to see her meandering through the corridors with that "nothing could be sweeter," air. She expects to go to Hood next year. You're lucky, Peg for such a chance.

SARA DUNLAP

"Sally"

"Speech is silver, but silence is golden."

Sally, as she is known among her friends, appears to be one of the quiet ones of our class. But that opinion vanishes when you learn to know her, as she proves herself quite different.

ANNA MARTHA KRAMER

"Marty"

"How can I leave thee."

Marty came into our class two years ago. She is one of the sunny, care-free girls of the C. H. S. Her favorite pastime is a stroll through the halls with some little Junior. Marty studies hard and she wishes to enter Normal next fall.

Glee Club 4.

KENNETH HEAGY

"Kenny"

"The Pal That I Love"

Here's a studious lad, an excellent tennis player and an all around good fellow. Kenny's smile won him many friends and we guess it went even farther than that. We hope he will carry the good leadership shown in the past, to those he meets in the future.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; V. Pres. of Class 4; Hi-Y 3; Echo Staff 3; Editor of Echo 4; Pres. of A. A. 4; Baseball 2; Tennis Capt. 4; Oracle Staff 4.

ANNA LACKEY

"Ann"

Her troubles rest—but lightly upon her.

We do not know so much about Ann, because she is very quiet and unconcerned about the routine of school life. She does not make friends very quickly with the girls, but those who she is well-acquainted with say that she can talk as much as the rest of the members of our class if she knows you. We do not know Anna's ambition, but we hope she will attain her goal.

GLEN LACKEY

"Lackey"

Lackey is a rather quiet chap and keeps his ideas to himself except when he is telling them to someone. Lackey is a real good scout, and what do you think Professor Potter trusts him to take the Senior Boys' roll call. Lackey never lacks company (?) going to and from school, as most of us know. Glen is a go-getter and usually accomplishes what he commences. "Good luck, boy."

A. A. 1, 2, 3; Class Pres. 3; V. Pres. Literary 2; Glee Club 4.

LULA REEDER

"And she laughed, and laughed, and laughed!!!"

Did any one ever see Lu that she wasn't laughing or talking? Lu's usually among those called up front in a study hall, but what's a little thing like that? Lu's an all around good sport and always in for everything. She belongs with Miss Starner's group of shining lights, and don't worry, Lu isn't one of the dull ones.

Sec'y of Lit. 2; Ass't Sec'y Class 3.

MARY PRESTON

"A truer friend can never be found Though you search the whole world round."

Mary is a very quiet girl who is very much devoted to her lessons. She is going to go to Normal this summer and then turn herself into a sweet but demure little school teacher. Gee! don't you envy her pupils? Mary is very fond of reciting poetry and her head holds a number of short poems which she has learned from various sources. Maybe the Class of '25 will be proud of a poetess some day.

Oracle Staff.

MAX ROSENAU                  "Cy", "Caesar", "Roman", etc.

"Athlete, Shiek, and Good Sport too,"
"Taken together all mean you."

If "Maxie" works as hard in after life as he did for the "Green" football "C" which adorns the front of his white sweater, he is going to be a big success. "Cy" is known by every one in C. H. S. even the "Frosh". He is never known to be angry or to dislike anyone, consequently he has no enemies. And—would you believe it? He's a ladies man.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4.

MARY RYNARD

"Little Mary"

"Good goods comes in small packages."

Mary is not very big, but she is a good scholar, especially in Spanish. If you don't know a word, just ask Mary, she knows. Mary is planning to be a stenographer, but will she be one?

A. A. 2, 3, 4.

LORENNNA GUSSMAN

"Gussy"

"Happy am I, from care I am free;
Why aren't they all contented like me?"

Gussy is a very cheerful young lady. She believes in a good time and then study. Lately, however, she has been on the honor role. We wonder if she is starting a new record for college next year? Anyway, we hope so. We're sure she will get along alright. We also notice that a little Dickinson Freshman is helping her get started for next year.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4; G. R. 1, 2, 3, 4.

MILLARD GLIEM

"Mick"

He came to us from Mt. Holly and, when in a talkative mood, delights in telling us about his home town. Outside of his regular school work he takes an active part in the orchestra.

A. A. 3, 4; Orchestra 3, 4.

MARY GILLAUGH

"Carbon"

"Like sunshine after the rain."

Mary entered our class two years ago. She is noted for her sunny disposition. If you know her you can't help but love her. One of her ambitions is to drill the A B C's and the multiplication tables. We feel sure that Mary will be capable of fulfilling that position.

ROBERT GRAHAM

"Bob"

"Sunny—that's me all over."

Bob is one of our smiling students who came here from Newville.

He is amiable, jovial, and possesses the spirit to liven things up. However, great men have their faults, and Bob's happens to be with the ladies. He can be seen rushing around the assembly hall at noon-time playing the part of the dashing and impulsive Romeo with the girls.

A. A. 4; Class Play.

REBERT WEIDLER

"Reb"

"Only You!!"

This handsome young shiek bestows all his bewitching power on one young lady. As to the results he obtains we are unable to state. Nevertheless Reb is a good fellow and also a checker player. He wants to go to Penn State next fall and we wish him success in life and love.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Glee Club 4.

MARY WERT

"Wertie"

Chatter, chatter all day long,
And still she has more to say.
We wonder if she won't run down,
Or lose her voice some day.

If there is news to be had "Wertie's" right there, and talk about the gift of gab—well just ask her teachers. Wertie is an all around sport, scattering laughter wherever she goes. Her incessant talk and her contagious laughter have made Wertie a prime favorite of the class.

A. A. 2, 3; Glee Club 1.

MARCUS WEITZEL

"Puddin"

"A talking machine that never runs down."

We have with us the most incorrigible tease ever turned out of C. H. S., and a lad noted for his lightness—in every sense of the word. He's light on his feet, ask his girl; and he's light in his head, ask his teachers. Puddin is a good sport though and he really has a serious side. If you want to see him blush like a tomato just mention his girl. He also knows everything about a radio—he even knows how to spell it.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 3, 4.

KATHARINE WILLIAMS

"Kass" "Katty"

"Giggling when she comes, giggling when she goes,
But someone asked what it was all about,—
And she said, 'Gee, I don't know'."

Here comes Katty with her smiling face. She's another one who is never "down-in-the-mouth." Katty's one of her Household Arts girls and she is getting along quite well. Whether she will make use of her knowledge in cooking and sewing, nobody knows, but it looks like she will before long.

Oracle Staff; Sec'y Senior Lit.; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

BEULAH STARNER

"Blondie"

"For she was just the quiet kind
Whose nature never varies."

Beulah is a very timid little miss, you scarcely know when she is about. She is so sweet and unselfish you can't help but love her. She is a good student and we hope she may be able to accomplish great things.

LEORA STONE

"Stonie"

Clever, smiling, bright
Despite her miniature height.

Leora is one of the cleverest girls of our class. There is hardly a second that she is not on the go. Always laughing and talking. She is pursuing the Household Arts course, and we are sure sodeday in the near future, she will be able to put into practice the domestic arts which she is now being taught.

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Sec'y A. A. 4; Glee Club 1, 2, 3; A. Secy. of A. A. 3; G. R. 1, 2, 3; Basketball 1, 2; Class Play.

EDNA STONESIFER

"Betts"

"She is most fair, and thereunto
Her life doth rightly harmonize."

Betts is one of those real jolly girls. You should hear her when jokes are told. She can outlaugh anyone. Among her train are many of the "studs." We think Edna would make a typical stenographer, and hope that she succeeds when her school days are over.

A. A. 2, 3, 4.

FAYNE THOMPSON

"Tee"

"Her fingers wandered idly
Over the noisy (typewriter) keys,"
"Suddenly she starts pounding,
Another medal, if you please."

Oh! how she can typewrite. We were all quite proud with her "Expert" Typist's Medal". She's intelligent, too; if you don't know something, ask her. We suppose she studies at home when she is not otherwise engaged. Yes, "when there's an engagement, there's a "ring" (?). She'll make a good stenographer—but will she be one?

A. A. 3, 4; G. R. 1; Glee Club 1; Oracle Staff.

MILDRED MOORE

"Teedie"

"Holy, fair, and wise is she
The heavens such grace did lend her."

Teedie is such a little girl, but oh how much she knows! She is very efficient in her studies but when any fun is to be had Teedie is sure to find it. She expects to go to Normal this summer and learn to be a real school-marm.

OLIVE MYERS

"Discreet, inviting, candid, shy,
An outward ice, an inward fire."

Olive is one of our industrious girls. She never fails to study her lessons and she knows them too. Her ability to read French to her less fortunate classmates is remarkable. We feel that the class is better by having Olive in it.

ELIZABETH NAUGLE

"Betty"

"You'd know her at a glance I think
Her eyes are blue, her cheeks are pink."

Betty is one of the jolliest girls of the Senior Class. She is very clever in everything she does and is always ready for fun. Her ever ready smile has made many friends for her in C. H. S.

Oracle Staff.

LESTER RAUDABAUGH

"Raudy"

"Rau—Rau—Raudabaugh."

Although Raudy was late many times it is probable he was delayed at Plainfield. Good excuse, eh, boys! He intends carrying on his education until he attains the point of preparing others for life's opening. Good luck, teacher.

A. A. 2, 3, 4.

ALLAN SHATTO

"Bud"

"Good men are scarce; take care of me."

Bud is one of the busiest boys in the Senior Class. He is the manager of the boy's basket-ball team and when it comes to running, Bud is a regular human aeroplane. He likes to get into a good argument especially in History and Civics class. But no one minds that you may be sure.

Class Pres. 1; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball Mgr. 3, 4; Track 1, 2, 3, 4.

KATHERINE SHEAFER

"Red"

She talks and talks,
But that is human;
She likes the men,
But she's a woman.

Everyone knows how our Katty likes to talk. Yet we will admit we all miss her when she isn't around. Katty is always foremost in our ranks when it comes to having fun. But she never fails to bring good spirit and is one of the best sports in the class. Here's luck to ye, Katty!

Oracle Staff; A. A.

ELLA SHEARER

"Swifty"

"Variety is the Spice of Life."

"Sh! Don't you tell." That's Ella's line. Ella is claimed to be the fastest girl in school, on her feet. It was said that she was wandering the halls with a Junior boy but she tells me that it is all over now. She may be right. But the future is undecided as yet.

A. A. 2, 3; G. R. 1, 2; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4.

ANNA SHENK

"Anne"

"When you're in trouble
Don't roam about
Just go to Anne
She'll help you out."

Here's our Anne, a sweet little maid, who is always ready to lend a helping hand. She is always trying to find something to laugh about. We hope that her jolly spirit will help her to go laughing through life. Anne expects to go to Shippensburg Normal, and then to teach children their A-B-C's.

A. A. 2; Girl Reserves 1; Glee Club 1.

LILLIAN CARN

"Jack"

"Without pleasure school would be unbearable."

Jack is one of the bright spots in the Senior Class. Is there ever a time when she isn't happy? When she isn't with Pete she is with Kitty. They look a lot alike and are often taken for sisters. If you want to know the latest design in compacts and combs just ask Jack. She knows. She would like to be a hair dresser some day.

Girl Reserves 2; Basket Ball 2; A. A. 3, 4.

ESTHER BRUBAKER

"Pest"

"The only reason I go to school is to play basketball."

Pest is one of the jolly girls of the Senior Class, always laughing. But besides that she is our basketball star. She has played ever since she was a Freshman. She is very much interested in Newville and we all wonder why. Paul is the reason. You seldom see Pest without Mash unless she is with Paul.

Glee Club 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Capt. Basketball 4.

HARRY CALLIO

"Pete"

"A good sport if ever there was one."

Pete is another of our stellar basket-ball players. He ranks high as a student and spends much of his time in the wood working department. He has taken a peculiar interest in the Sophomore Class especially in the study of Violet (s). As to his future work he is yet undecided but we feel sure that he will succeed in whatever he chooses.

A. A. 3, 4; Oracle Staff; Basketball 3, 4.

ETHEL BROWN

"Peg"

"A most womanly woman."

Ethel is the kind of girl that is hard to find. She is very quiet but can be very jolly at times. You never hear her complain about her lessons, for she always has them prepared. Ethel is undecided as to what she will do after graduation.

Glee Club 1; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

PAUL LOVE

"Blondy" "Zac"

Zac hails from the metropolis of Oakville. He is a very fine fellow, but rather quiet unless you know him very well. He is one of the stars of the gridiron, playing three years varsity. Paul intends to be a football coach and we feel confident that he will be as successful as he has been in high school.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Football 2, 3, 4; Baseball 2.

THELMA LYTER

"Jew"

When her eye doth shine—
All else confusion.

Thelma is our class Secretary and every one likes her. For as little as she is, she surely gets around fast, as she rushes all over the building. She took up the Household Arts course to be a nurse as she says, but we wonder if it isn't to keep house for a certain little boy in Lancaster?

A. A. 2, 3; Sec'y Senior Class; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; G. R. 1.

JOHN McCREA

"John"

"A Newville lad is John McCrea
A very good sport his pals all say."

John is another of those who got something out of his High School course. He was a very studious lad excelling in chemistry and in the asking of questions. Never seeing him around the girls we suppose he is one of those "silent shieks."

A. A. 4.

GLADYS LYTER

"Glad"

Always laughing, never sad;
Why isn't everyone like Glad.

That's a good nickname for her. Glad never looks sad, but then, how could she with such a name? Glad and her pal, Mid, are always acting. Their little dialogues are the spice of all programs.

Glad's on the basketball team, too. If she's not busy with one of her own games, she's always right there to yell for C. H. S.

G. R. 1; Basketball 2, 3, 4; A. Sec'y Senior Class; Class Play.

ELIZABETH FRANCISCUS

"Toots"

Not that I love studies less,
But that I love fun more.

Here's to the Mt. Holly Springs sheba of our class, whose beautiful hair has won her much praise. Toots is an all around good pal, full of fun and ever ready to partake of it. Like all girls she has her beaus. Now don't say, who? For who can tell who this young lady prefers out of her circle of many admirers. We are not sure where she intends to finish her education.

KENNETH FREE

"Dutch"

Here's a shiek
Tho' not so formal
Who ties his camel
At West Chester Normal.

Here is another of our handsome blue-eyed darlings.
Everybody likes Dutch, including the boys. He is a good sport and also a good checker player. He knows his stuff in the class rooms as well as in parlors, in which of the two places he is the best, we know not, but we can imagine.

Track 3, 4; Football 4; Basket ball 4; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 4;
Oracle Staff.

MARGARET FREDERICK

"Peg"

"A perfect thirty-four."

Peggy, here, is going to Drexel next year. Peg's an all around good kid. She didn't go out for sports but is always there for all the games.

We don't believe Peg worries much about her lessons, but she always manages to get through.

Peg's usually giggling; she's just that happy-go-lucky kind.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; G. R. 1, 2; Class Play.

EDWARD GARDNER

"Eddie"

Ed's most favored occupation is his studies. Outside of that he usually spends his time in playing a baritone horn.
He believes that the Carlisle Band and C. H. S. orchestra would be failures if it were not for his musical talent.
Altho Eddie does not profess to be a ladies' man, he manages to step out among 'em occasionally.

A. A. 3, 4; Hi-Y 4; Orchestra 2, 3, 4.

HELEN KELLY

"Kell"

"She giggles as she comes,
She giggles as she goes,
But what on earth she's giggling at
There is nobody knows."

That's our shy, modest, fun-loving Kell. Looks are deceiving, aren't they? But if you don't believe me just get around her awhile, and see for yourself. Helen is always worried for fear she won't get to school on time. So she comes at one o'clock P. M., and reads French until 1:45 P. M.

A. A. 1; Girl Reserves 1; See'y of Lit. 3.

TALBERT HEWLETT

From Newville came the great big boy
Carlisle High School to enjoy.

Here we have one of our studious lads. As the verse above says, he comes from Newville (wherever that is). But he sure does know his stuff. In Chemistry—whew!! Would there were more like him. And as a speaker he also excels. He is like his friend Bob; an awful shiek with the ladies.

A. A. 4; Class Play.

LENORE KITNER

"Kitty"

"A typical flapper
Frivolous and fair
Blue eyes and golden hair."

Kitty is a fun-loving girl and she is the best fun at a party. Everything's "A Baloney" to Kitty. You can't kid her either. Won't she make a fine "stenog?" Kitty's hair is the worry of her life. Especially on rainy days. After the five minute bell in Mr. McCormack's class you can always expect to see Kitty's powder puff in action. If "teacher" says anything Kitty replies, "Well the bell rang."

Girl Reserves 1; Glee Club 1; A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4.

PAUL HARVEY

"Beaver"

From Newville comes this noble lad,
To have him here, we all are glad.

Alas, another lad from Newville. But we can't hold that against him because Newville is some joint. Isn't it? Paul is very quiet but a hard worker. When he first came in our midst, little was known of him, but after a while he made himself known and was soon a friend of everyone. We all wish we were like him because he hasn't an enemy.

MARK WENTZEL

"Wentzel"

"Nature has performed strange things in her time."

Mark is a very ambitious lad. He rides to school every morning on a bicycle, besides knowing his stuff every day in class. The fair sex have no attractions for him, so there is little to draw him from the straight and narrow path. What his ambition is we know not, but whatever he does he will surely succeed for he is that kind of a boy.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Pres. Hi-Y 4; Orchestra; Class Play.

ISABEL WILSON

"Izzy"

"I've made it a practice to put all my worries down in the bottom of my heart, then sit on the lid and smile."

Izzy is always happy and contented. She is the songbird of the Commercial Class, and according to all prophecies we may be listening to Izzy over the radio one of these days.

A. A.; Glee Club 1, 2, 3, 4; G. R. 1, 2, 3, 4.

JOHN WOLF

"Wolfie"

It was whispered to me one day
That it always seems to be Helen May.
That "Wolfie" takes to Stephen's Parlors
To spend his hard earned dollars.

I hope this verse explains to us what seemed to be on "Wolfie's" mind during his school days. Wolfie tells us he expects to be an undertaker, but old '25 thinks he should be an "orator", for he sure can talk.

A. A. 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Vice Pres. of Class 3; Orchestra 3.

MILDRED WILSON

"Mid"

"Of study took she least care and least heed."

Mid don't care about studying. Why should she? We are all sorry Mid isn't studying Domestic Science this year. When you see a ring on the third finger of her left hand, there's something else to study besides shorthand. We all wish you happiness, Mid.

Glee Club; Girl Reserves.

ANNA ALLEN

For she's just the quiet kind whose nature never varies.

Anna seems very quiet and never annoys anyone. She seems to have lost all interest in the opposite sex since someone graduated last year—still you can't always tell. Anna is a good friend to every one, and many wish they had that quality.

FRANK ARMSTRONG

"Army"

"I wish in Carlisle's rooms and halls
I'd hear the sound of billiard balls."

"Army" is one of the most popular boys in the class. As a student, however, he cannot be envied, but he has one subject in which he cannot be surpassed, that is billiards. He also is somewhat of a shiek. He would rather have a good time than study—and there are others like him.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Glee Club 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Orchestra 1, 2, 3; Baseball 2; Class Play.

VIRGINIA ARMSTRONG

"Jinny"

"I pour my joy forth in a song."

Jinny does like to sing and always knows the most popular songs. And say "Did you ever hear her laugh?" Gee! "it's catching." She's not so fond of study as of other "things" an—er—"persons," but she doesn't neglect her work. Shes going to be a stenographer. Good luck, Jinny! May you always go singing to your work.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1.

KENNETH JAMES BAILEY

"Jim"

"Small, Smaller, Smallest."

Jim is the smallest fellow in our class. He is very much interested in the girls Basket Ball Team and we all know it is on account of a certain Sophomore lady. Jim is not only an all around good athlete participating in track, football, and basketball but he is a good sport and a fair student. He has not yet decided as to his future work.

A. A. 1, 2, 3, 4; Pres. of Literary 2, 4; Hi-Y; Football 3, 4; Basketball 3, 4; Track 3, 4.

JOHN LEWIS

"Lewis"

"Never Speaks Until Spoken To"

"Hey Lewis! got your Geometry" is the cry of many senior boys. John excels in mathematics in fact so well that it looks as though he will make a great teacher.

Another of the many things John shines in is his singing, oft times making the Assembly hall quiver with his deep bass voice.

A. A. 3. 4.

RACHAEL SMALLWOOD

"My tongue within my lips I rein
For who talks much must talk in vain."

Rachael is a very quiet maiden, who does not speak much unless spoken to. However do not think she is grave and unsmiling, for that is not true. She is ready to laugh when the occasion occurs for glee. We hope she will have heaps of success in whatever direction her future plans and ambitions tend.

CLASS POEM

When first we came within your walls
The years stretched long ahead,
We looked upon our coming tasks
With fear and even dread.
But now those years are over,
The race is almost run;
Our High School life has held for us
Not only work, but fun.
Now we're fondly looking backward
At those years in C. H. S.
Our hopes, our joys, our trials, our fears—
Mere words cannot express.
And as we leave you, High School,
To go our separate ways,
We'll ever strive to honor thee
With deeds as well as praise.
This parting word we give thee
That as we leave your halls,
We'll try to live in Life's great school
Thy code of moral laws.

—Edith Fagan.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1925

Our noble Alma Mater, during its illustrious history, has been favored by many important occurrences. Yet never has there been an event more promising of success for her than the entry of our class on the second of September, nineteen hundred and twenty-one.

When our principal announced that we were the largest class in the high school, we fairly swelled with pride, even though in proportion to that size we might be lacking in mental achievements. We listened to Mr. Potter's annual address, awed and heart-stricken, wondering how we should be able to accomplish the high-minded principles that he advocated.

The weeks sped by, and gradually we had begun to find our classrooms without the assistance of the overbearing and important Sophomores. Soon we grew accustomed to our small section in the vast auditorium and began to enter into school activities. At last we could actually sing our beloved high school song, and no longer needed to hang our heads while our superiors sang loud and lustily.

Our freshman year at last came to an end with a great climax, the Freshman Reception. Here we tried to set a good example to our next year's Frosh.

Quickly the Sophomore year came upon us. This year was filled with the study of the Ancients and playing pranks on innocent little Frosh.

Although we had looked forward to many social activities, none appeared on the horizon. Instead, we followed Mr. Potter's sage advice and became regular grinds.

One very illustrious event of this year was the winning of the Inter-class Track Meet by our class. We were quite surprised and elated to conquer the upper classmen, they having some far-famed athletes among them.

In our Junior year we continued to study somewhat, but other interests were developing. The first thing was our social budding. Our class held a party at Boiling Springs at which everybody had a great time.

Then followed our second triumph. Again we had won the Track Meet. Not only that, but our class was given the honor of having the most athletes, and of sterling quality too.

Then in May came the Junior Reception, which was considered by the faculty the most successful one ever held.

At last we have reached our goal. We are now dignified (?) seniors striving ever upward and onward. We are no longer the backward, bashful people that entered C. H. S., as is well known by our successful wiener roast and other social activities that followed thick and fast.

Many achievements have we attained this year. We again adopted the "Code of Ethics". The year book has been quite as successful as last year's, due to the untiring efforts of the editor and his assistants.

Our class play, "The Charm School", which we put on to help pay the expenses of our senior ride was also much liked and appreciated by all who saw it. These are only some of the many achievements of our brilliant class. Others have we attained which cannot be seen or felt until we are gone.

We approach the end with mingled joy and sorrow, glad in the consciousness of added power, and of the weariness of that hour, when we shall have to enter that struggle we have either faithfully or unfaithfully prepared for during our four years course; but sorrowing in the fact that bonds of friendship must be broken, that our short life here will exist as memory only. But we would not be so selfish to think of ourselves alone in this hour. Our prayers are with those who have courageously struggled to give us the needed assistance and help through all these years. We earnestly hope that we have pursued our course in such a way that we have left a few marks that dear C. H. S. will be proud to remember as having been set by the class of nineteen twenty-five.

MARGARET CRAVER.

THE CLASS PROPHECY OF 1925

All Hail! 'Tis four days before the Ides of June. The crystal ball has promised much for this day. It's magic depths hold weird unforetold prophecies. Now I will try to read to you the mysteries, which loom in this weird spherical body, that foretell the future of my class mates.

Heavy clouds begin to gather. How they whirl and change form. It looks like a great mass of people. It is slightly blurred, but gradually is becoming more and more distinct. Oh! now I can distinguish a number of familiar faces. They are delivering speeches. It must be a teachers' meeting. Sure enough there is Mary Preston and Olive Myers, still very close friends and looking more interested in being together than in listening to a speech which John Lewis is giving on "The Importance of Mathematics". Next my eyes rest upon Elizabeth Naugle and Anna Shenk, who are thinking of the days when they came to C. H. S. in the bus. Near the front is Paul Harvey, wearing a contented look because "Math" brings back pleasant memories of the "Solid" class. There are Anna Allen, Sara Dunlap, and Rachael Smallwood, all of whom seem as quiet and reserved as ever. Near by is a small group composed of Mary Lehman, Marian McCarter and Helen Kelly busily engaged in a conversation.

Clara Curley is getting up to give a talk on Chemistry, but the scene becomes misty and the distant sounds of music fill my ears. Next I behold the inside of a huge New York theater. The orchestra is playing the overture. The leader appears to be a very large person playing a saxophone—no other than Foster Charlton—ably directing Edward Gardner, Howard Lackey, Millard Gleim and Mark Wentzel.

The audience is greatly stirred by the music and highly applauds them. Among the most enthusiastic are Leora Stone and Ella Shearer (accompanied by the Lackey brothers). Leora and Ella are still thinking it over—whether or not they wish to be sisters-in-law. There also are Katherine Williams, Anna Lackey, Fayne Thompson, and Mildred Wilson wearing contented looks and seeming well pleased with their domestic life.

The program next catches my attention. The main features for the evening are—

1. "A Modern Drama" written by Lena Hoch, who they say is becoming famous in the literary world. This drama contains an all star cast which is composed of Tolbert Hewlett, Robert Graham, Max Rosenau, Gladys Lyter and Loula Morris Houston.
2. The man who wrestles with himself—John McCrea.
3. A Vocal Duet—Mademoiselles Margaret Frederick and Isabel Wilson.
4. A Dancing Feature—Katherine Sheaffer, Lula Reeder, Kenneth Waggoner, and John Hall.

At the bottom of this amazing program an announcement in large letters reads—Costumes designed by Miss Thelma Lyter.

The part which disappoints me above all is the fact that the scene is not lasting long enough to enable me to witness the performance.

Is that a clap of thunder? No, it is a huge locomotive driven by Robert Weidler and LeRoy Weary. But tell me, where are all these people coming from? Surely, by the decorations it must be some sort of a holiday, and these are the college students coming home. Yes, there is Margaret Dotter from Hood, Eva Forney from Drexel, and Jean Weakley with Margaret Craver returning from their Y. W. C. A. work.

Then coming at a rapid speed down the street, are some of the Dickinson Alumni. Mildred Shenk, Helen Laird and Lorena Gussman are soon drawn into the whirlpool of introductions, while Janet Smith, Eva Fitzgerald and Kenneth Heagy are stationed at various places witnessing the arrivals with interest.

As my eyes follow the rapidly disappearing figures, I recognize several men in uniforms approaching. A sailor? No, more than a sailor. It is Noel Smith at last realizing his ambition to be a captain of a huge vessel. He is very much interested in William Murphy who is evidently recounting his many narrow escapes in the army. Soon a mounted police rides up to these two and shakes hands. I cannot see his face. Now he is turning. It is Lloyd Dewalt.

There seems to be a great excitement in this town. Farther up the street Harry Callio and Lester Raudabaugh appear in a doorway above which is written—"Hand Carved Furniture". Upstairs in the same building Lillian Carns and Lenore Kitner are looking out of the window of their hair-dressing establishment.

Hovering above the buildings is an aeroplane operated by Eugene Greenwood. He is dropping some advertisements. One flutters into sight. It informs me that Mary Gillough is going to lecture on Carbon this evening and that there is going to be a gymnastic exhibition by a "gym" class ably directed by Kenneth Bailey and his two assistants Esther Brubaker and Madeline Davis.

My eyes are becoming weary looking at all this excitement. But Oh! what was that? What a piercing sound! I would have fallen into a deep slumber if that scream had not aroused me.

The crystal ball is still holding me in its trance. I see an office in a huge New York skyscraper. A scream seems to issue forth from it. Yes, I see it all now. Edna Stonesifer, overtaxed by the amount of work she is expected to do, has fainted. Virginia Armstrong, one of the stenographers—still very sympathetic—has uttered this piercing cry, which caused an assemblage of all the stenographers in the building. Margaret Bridge, becomes so frightened by this occurrence that she immediately calls up the doctor, minister, and undertaker, who prove to be Marcus Weitzel, Frank McCrea, and John Wolf respectively.

The managers, Frank Armstrong and Carl Fuehrer come to the scene bringing Florence Bentley, the nurse, but all this aid is unnecessary because Edna soon recovers after Ethyl Brown and Kathryn Lyder have thrown much water into her face, and Catherine McGonigal has fanned her very energetically.

Six other stenographers arrive after the excitement is over. Rolandis Weitzel, Evelyn Bankert and Leoline Meals are sorry they were not there in time to help. They blame it all on the telephone operator for not calling in time and are even threatening to notify Kenneth Free, the district manager of the Bell phone. However, Mildred Moore, Mary Rynard, and Helen Sollenberger feel delighted that they have missed the scare and are glad Edna is beginning to look perfectly well again.

Allen Shatto, the bookkeeper is the only person who is not disturbed
He keeps on conscientiously working over his books, thinking the screamer only some silly girl who has seen a mouse.

Three posters dart before my vision. They quiver, now they stay; the first is an advertisement for Booth Tarkington's story "Damsel Dark, Damsel Fair", posed by Edith Fagan and Mary Fickes, the second is a dashing football player. It is Ray Mentzer, all American full back last year; the last is an "ad" by Paul Love and James Bloser, who are teaching young men to become skillful farmers.

The class of nineteen twenty-five never seemed so large to me before. Will this magic ball keep my attention forever? Yet another scene. What more can possibly be revealed? A sewing circle! Probably a woman's club. The president, Elizabeth Franciscus, is just asking Mary Wert to read the minutes. It becomes evident that this club is composed of old maids and widows. I also see Martha Kramer busily engaged in talking to Beulah Starner and Martha Crider on the subject of her new parrot, which can talk several languages.

The meeting continues, but I can see no more. I look and look but all in vain for I have seen the future of everyone of my class mates portrayed in some manner or another.

—ELIZABETH L. McCULLOUGH.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Girls Glee Club did not get started until after Christmas, but under the leadership of Miss Barker, the girls soon had one of the most successful clubs in the history of the school.

Beside singing in school several times the club took part in an excellent concert held in the First Lutheran Church. The music was appreciated by all and many favorable comments were heard in favor of the club.

The club this year was one of the largest ever produced in the High School, containing at least 50 members made up of all four classes.

TRACK

Many of the members of last year's team reported again this year to Coach Snyder, along with many new members. Since we carried off two cups last year and placed in every other meet, things are bright for this season.

In the County Meet we won the track and field events, but since we did not compete in the other events we took second place instead of first.

THE SCHEDULE

- MAY 2—County Meet at Carlisle.
MAY 16—District 3 Meet at Carlisle.
MAY 23—Shippensburg at Shippensburg.
MAY 30—Dickinson Meet at Carlisle.

The Interclass Meet was won by the Class of 1925 for the third successive year. The standing was as follows: Seniors, Sophomores, Freshmen, Juniors.

TENNIS

Our tennis team this year although not undefeated as they were last year, are going strong. A strong schedule has been arranged with several interesting matches. The first match was lost to Harrisburg Academy, one of the strongest teams in the State, but the boys are confident of winning the remaining games.

At the first call for football about forty-five candidates answered. As the season went on this number gradually fell to about twenty-five. In spite of the fact that the big game with Mechanicsburg High was lost for the third successive year, the season was a success. The Green and White warriors outplayed most of their opponents but were not always successful in scoring a victory. Wins were scored of Shippensburg High, Hershey High, Chambersburg High, and Hanover High. Carson Long Institute and Waynesboro were outplayed and should have been beaten. Gettysburg High, Mechanicsburg High and New Cumberland High earned their victories over the Green and White.

Our basketball team this year was the finest quintet in the history of C. H. S. Sixteen victories and four defeats tell the story. The crowning point of the season was the victory over Hanover, the first after five consecutive defeats. Other bright spots were victories over Gettysburg High, Gettysburg Academy, Chambersburg, Columbia and Myerstown, all of whom were defeated on their own floor as well as our own.

C. H. S. met defeat at the hands of Harrisburg Tech, Steelton, Lebanon and Hanover all on foreign floors. Lebanon, Hanover and Steelton were defeated on our floor so all of our defeats were avenged except that from Tech who would not play in Carlisle.

It was the first year that Carlisle High did not lost on its home floor.

When Mr. Church, the girls' athletic coach, started the basketball year of '24 and '25, a serious problem faced him.

Of the champion team of '23 and '24 only one player remained. That was Captain Brubaker. But all the girls worked hard, and finally a team was picked. To the surprise of all, it turned out to be one of the best teams in the history of girls' athletics in C. H. S. It even surpassed the championship team of the year before.

The games won from Middletown, Shippensburg Normal, Hanover and Chambersburg were the high lights of the season.

Next year there will be seven girls who won their letter, back to wear the C. H. S. colors again.

And now we leave with Virginia Blinn, the new captain and her team-mates, all the good luck and good wishes of the class of '25 for another successful season.

SENIOR CLASS

The Senior Class entered into the last year of school in high spirits, and activities started off with a rush. The first week officers were elected and plans were made for a party at Mt. Holly, which were later carried out and enjoyed by all. Shortly after this, the call for football men was issued. This call was answered by a good crowd of athletes from our class. After completing a good season in this, the boys turned their attention to basketball. In this sport the Seniors produced seven of the ten letter men. All these boys tried hard to make the team one of the best in the State, and every one in the school knows that they were—that!

Not only did they show up well in these sports, but they won the Interclass Track Meet for three consecutive years. And now—last but not least—they were well represented on the Tennis Team.

JUNIOR CLASS

During the past year the Junior Class has had but one social function. We attribute this to the fact that the class is composed of a great many out-of-town students.

Several literary programs have been held during the year, some of which were very good.

Seven men of this class answered the call for football out of which five received their letters and Ralph Ricker was elected captain for next season.

Then came the call for basketball, and out of the five who responded to the call one received his letter and two were varsity substitutes.

With the coming of Spring, the track athletes got out their equipment and again we were well represented on the varsity.

All the Juniors are hoping for a successful class next year.

SOPHOMORES

The Class of '27 began the term of '24 and '25 with a vim not equaled by any class except the Seniors.

We did not enjoy many socials events, but the ones that were held went off with a bang. Everyone taking part and everyone enjoying them.

Our scholastic standing may be rated as the best in the school, as the monthly lists of those having all grades above 90 per cent. has shown.

In athletics we were one of the best classes to produce letter men. In each sport we made ourselves known. The boys who did not take part in any other sport, tried out for the Class Basketball Team. After the Interclass League progressed, we found ourselves tied with the "Frosh" for first, and not until after a very tough battle did the "Frosh" win from us.

In the Interclass Meet, we were beaten out for first place by the experienced Seniors, but lots of credit is due them for the showing they made.

The last and best mark on our pillar of success is our class spirit and school spirit. It is shown everywhere; in class meetings and all school activities, we make ourselves known.

We are sure that you will agree we are one of the best classes in the school. We are too modest to say the best.

HI-Y

The Hi-Y Club began its third year of activity by holding its first meeting of the year on September 23, 1924.

One of the features of its work was the publication of the C. H. S. Echo, which was printed by the Carlisle Sentinel. The Echo is now replaced by the school paper.

The Hi-Y took part in The World Outlook campaign, which is a movement to help the needy boys of foreign lands. It has thus far sent $50.00, which was raised by selling calendars and a concert staged by the Carlisle Band, which was held on February 6.

One of the most important features of the Hi-Y was the discussion of life problems and Bible study at each meeting. A different boy led each discussion, in which personal problems, as well as problems that confront the High School student, were freely discussed.

Several suppers were held, at which we had some very good speakers, among whom were Professor Potter, Mr. Snyder, Mr. Cope, Mr. S. D. Clark, "Vic" Baiz, "Bill" Woods of Gettysburg, and Mr. Brewer, State Boys' Secretary. Each one gave the boys a real message.

The Hi-Y had many activities during the year. Just how successful it has been, we cannot say. It has aimed to be of service and to develop the boys for leadership. We hope that the Hi-Y will continue to grow and develop in the future.

Why Not Be a Success

There is not failure so absolute as that of a man who has never made a whole-hearted attempt to realize the full extent of his capabilities. We believe the young men and women of our schools are striving for success. Bring out your ability. After a year of practicing common-sense thrift, you will see the difference from the old way of living. Resolve now. Open a saving account at the Carlisle Deposit Bank and Trust Company, the place where many of the fathers and grandfathers of the boys and girls of our schools, laid the foundations of their successful lives in a material way.

Come, you will receive a very cordial reception.

FRESHMAN CALENDAR

Since the beginning of the year the Freshman Class has held four literaries which were a success. They were given by D1-2-3-4. The literary of D3 was held in honor of Longfellow, that of D4 in honor of St. Patrick.

At the end of the Interclass Basketball League, it was found that the Freshmen and Sophomores were tie for first place. A game was then arranged for the following Saturday to play off the tie. After an exciting game, the Freshmen defeated the Sophomores 11 to 9 and won the championship of the League.

The Freshmen tennis team was very good, as they had some excellent men out in the tournament. We are glad for the showing they made.

After the Freshmen Reception was over we all felt sure that we had ended a very successful year.

GIRL RESERVES

There are two Girl Reserve Clubs in Carlisle High School. The Gene-Stratton Porter Club composed of Freshmen, and the Wayaka Club comprising Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors.

The theme of the Gene-Stratton Porter Club meetings during the year was, "A Trip to Europe." In each meeting they pretended to visit a different European country, learning manners, custom and dress of each one.

The clubs are not only concerned with themselves, but try to be a help to others. Cheering the old ladies at the Lydia Baird Home with flowers and food, and sending gifts to Indian girls on reservations were two of their service activities. Serving others and helping wherever they can, is the duty of every true, loyal Girl Reserve.
